The image displays five lines of guitar tablature for the song "For Me and My Gal". The first line is marked with a 'C' chord and a '4' time signature. The second line is marked with an 'F' chord. The third line is marked with an 'F' chord. The fourth line is marked with a 'B7' chord. The tablature includes various fret numbers (0-5), accidentals (sharps and flats), and rhythmic markings such as slurs and accents. The notation is presented on a six-line staff for each line of music.

You can play this "straight" while learning it but once you have it under control play it with a fair amount of swing. It is a musical type of song so get some umph into it.

"For Me and My Gal" is a hit song from 1917 .

It was made famous in the 1942 film of the same name with Judy Garland and Gene Kelly. Other famous versions were made by Al Jolson, Perry Como and Burl Ives

The Garland/Kelly recording was inducted into the Grammy Hall of Fame in 2010
