I can lose these lonesomebluesforgetabout past&findsome body new thought of everythingfrom A to

zee ohhh.....h oh lonesome me ohh...hhhhhhhhh lonesome me

Fairly straightforward but words added as a guide. Do not play too fast.

The song was written and recorded in 1957 by Don Gibson. Notably it was produced by Chet Atkins. It immediately topped the country charts for 8 weeks.

It was recorded frequently in the 60's 70's and 80's by the likes of Elvis, Bob Lumen, Sacha Distell, and Johnny Cash

They all became chart hits in the USA and Europe. In the 60's it was included in many Albums made by such as The Everly Brothers and Ray Charles

In 1990 The Kentucky Headhunters version went to number 8 in the US and 19 in Canada Country Tracks. In the new millenium it still crops up on Albums by the likes of Tony Christie and The Tracks.

It settles into the Country/Rock /pop niche but we have a feeling it may crop up fairly soon in a new genre. It would make a great Rap song if rearranged .
